Oxley Announces Organizational Meeting

House Financial Services Committee Chairman Michael G. Oxley announced today that the Committee will hold its first meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday, February 14 in Room 2128 Rayburn House Office Building to officially organize.

The Committee will make official subcommittee assignments and adopt Committee rules and an oversight plan for the 107th Congress.

Rules of the House require each standing Committee to adopt Committee rules and an oversight plan for the 107th Congress. The oversight plan will include the areas in which the Committee and its Subcommittees expect to conduct oversight during this Congress but does not preclude oversight or investigation of additional matters or programs as issues arise. The Committee will consult with all relevant House Committees which may share jurisdiction on any of the subjects included in the oversight agenda.

Committee prints of the rule and oversight plan will be available for members of the press at 9 a.m. Wednesday, embargoed until 10 a.m., from Room 2132 Rayburn.
